

4TH SOUTHERN EUROPE EXPERIMENTALISTS MEETING

Tenerife, Canary Islands, Spain
31/January – 02/February 2013

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Experimental Community of Southern Europe is pleased to announce the 4th Southern Europe Experimentalists Meeting (SEET 2013), organized by Pablo Brañas (Middlesex University Business School), María Paz Espinosa (Universidad del País Vasco & Bridge), Natalia Jiménez (GLOBE: University of Granada), Jaromír Kovářík (Universidad del País Vasco & Bridge) and Praveen Kujal (Universidad Carlos III).

The meeting will be held in Tenerife North (Canary Islands, Spain) from January 31- February 2, 2013.

The meeting mainly promotes active interaction among researchers in experimental economics, behavioral economics and related areas, and we encourage theoretical contributions. A list of potential topics/sessions includes industrial organization, social preferences, (behavioral) game theory, risk attitudes, markets, field experiments, labor & gender economics, networks, neuroeconomics, asset markets among others.

Prospective contributors are invited to submit abstracts of their papers to the organizers through the registration form at the SEET website by December 1, 2012.

For more information, please, visit the conference website:

<http://www.grnadaworkshop.com/seet/> or contact info@granadaworkshop.com.

Looking forward to seeing you in Tenerife!

Natalia Jiménez

Chair of the Organizing Committee